A QUESTION OF JUHI-DICTION.

That is the Way That Parker Gets to the Front This Time, The case of Parker, alias Smith, the gold-brick swindler, may come up before Judge Hughes, of the United States Court, after all, but not for bail. If it comes up, the question will be one of jurisdiction, as to whether the swinder shall be tried in the Henrico County Court, or before Judge Hughes himself. It will be remembered that while Parker was arrested by the city authorities, it was decided that they had no jurisdiction over him, and the indictment was nolle prosequied. The United States authorities had, in the meantime, served a warrant upon him in the Police Court for impersonaling a United States assayer. Just at this juncture the county authorities at epped in, and claimed the man as their prey, and they were allowed to have him. United States District Attorney Lassiter now claims a prior right to the prisoner, on the ground that the warrant was served on him by Marshal Duesberry before his case was transferred to the County Court. The United States authorities have arranged to try Parker on the 21st; his case in the County Court is set for the 27th, so it now-remains to be seen which court will get him.

THE WOMAN'S EDITION,

May Thictieth.

The offices of the women who are to issue The Times on May 30th were all astir yesterday with a dozen or two busy women, and there was every reason to believe they meant business. Several desks, plied up with letters and copy, a typewriter that clicked away as busity as any machine in a railroad office, and all the bustle and burry of a thoroughly equipped newspaper office, were noticeable at a glance. Evidently the movement is no society venture or fad. The entire undertaking is based upon business principles, and will be executed for the sole purpose of making money for an altogether worthy object.

Many inquiries have been received as to the paper, and the interest in the fortlicoming Woman's Edition is increasing daily. The Woman's Edition of The Times will be the only issue of the paper on that day. The regular subscribers and purchasers of the paper will be privileged to take no other issue. The entire edition will be bandled by the women, and will astir yesterday with a dozen or two busy

His Seventy-Fifth Birthday.

His Seventy-Fifth Birthday.

Mr. John C. Walsh, who is one of the hest-known and most highly esteemed residents of Church Hill, was seventy-five years old Wednesday, and Wednesday night his residence, No. 109 north Twenty-ninth street, was the scene of a happy celebration of the event. Those of Mr. Walsh's children who reside in the city, with their wives and husbands, besides several near relatives and friends, were present by invitation to partake of a birthday collation, and give the occasion the character of a family reunion.

It would be difficult to find a younger man for his age than Mr. Walsh. Though verging on four score years, he possesses the vitality of a person of forty or fifty, and his energy is truly remarkable. Several birthday mementoes were sent by friends, and many wishes were expressed that the genial old gentleman may live to celebrate his 100th aumiversary.
